QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Does the "Bad Faith Doctrine" apply to Respondents when:

   (a) they continue to churn and multiply proceedings;

   (b) their proceedings have been mean spirited, frivolous, vindictive, and oppressive; and

   (c) they have caused unnecessary burdens on the courts?

2. Do a City and a State bureau have a license to wilfully violate, for three years, the permanent injunction of Petitioner's Bankruptcy Discharge by the use of the courts to shakedown in order to create a real estate monopoly for "Special Interests" in the Oklahoma City area?

3. Did the District Court abuse its discretion by denying attorney fees to Petitioner?

4. Did the Tenth Circuit Appeals Court err in denying attorneys' fees for "Bad Faith?"

PARTIES

1. The parties appear in the caption of this case. The two public entities operate under bureaucratic control.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT

Petitioner, William Patrick Pointon, Jr., respectfully prays that a Writ of Certiorari issue to review the Judgment Opinion of the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and the District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, refusing to grant attorneys' fees to Petitioner after Respondents' relentless pursuit of Petitioner by filing in State Court and ruthlessly prosecuting an "Application for Citation for Contempt" with penalties of fine and incarceration two years after their questionable Judgment was discharged in the United States Bankruptcy Court. Respondents wilfully and maliciously violated Petitioner's permanent injunction of his Bankruptcy Discharge. They deliberately and excessively multiplied proceedings and viciously committed "Bad Faith" against Petitioner and burdened and perpetrated fraud upon the courts which was part of a sordid scheme of deliberate misuse of the judicial process. To let stand would be a desecration of the practice of law.

OPINIONS BELOW

The Opinion of the Court of Appeals for rehearing May 2, 1995, appears in Appendix A to this Petition.

The Opinion of the Court of Appeals of March 28, 1995, appears in Appendix B.

The Minute Order of the District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma of March 1, 1994, appears in Appendix C.

JURISDICTION

The Court of Appeals' Opinion in this matter was filed on March 28, 1995. A timely Petition for Rehearing was filed on April 10, 1995. The Court of Appeals' denial of the Petition for Rehearing was issued on May 2, 1995, and is set forth in Appendix A. This Court's jurisdiction is invoked under Title 28, U.S.C. Sec.1254(1).

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

United States Constitution:

Amendment Fourteen

"...no state shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Amendment Eight

"Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted."

Statutes and Rules:

11 U.S.C. 524 Effect of Discharge

"(a) A discharge in a case under this title --
(1) voids any judgment at any time obtained,...
(2) operates as an injunction against the commencement or continuation of an action,..."

"Bad Faith Doctrine"

F.R.C.P. Rule 11

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The The Tenth Circuit Appeals Court erred in its March 28, 1995 Order by not granting attorney's fees for "Bad Faith" and 28 U.S.C. 1927. The Appeals Court stated in their order of March 28, 1995, that they had jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. Secs. 158(d) and 1291.

First, the Petitioner did not own the sewer system in 1980 at the inception of this predatory litigation, therefore, there was never subject matter jurisdiction. Attached is an affidavit with documentary evidence, Appendix D pages 1 thru 34, which was filed in the Oklahoma County District Court previous to all of this litigation which clearly shows the system's owner is the City of Choctaw. This evidence is irrefutable.

Secondly, citation in the Appeals Court's recent Order of March 28, 1995, United States v. The LTV Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 944 F. 2d 997, 1008 (2nd Cir 1991) is inapplicable to the instant case because: title to the sewer system vests in the City of Choctaw. For Choctaw to disclaim this documentary evidence, filed in the County Clerk's office is sheer mendacious fiction, which is the root of the "Bad-Faith Claim" against the Respondents.

All of these litigations, spawned by Choctaw, aided and abetted by OSDH, have been a fraud on both Petitioner and each court they have been in.

Background

In 1975, the City of Choctaw secretly and illegally dezoned Petitioner's commercial zoning of 150 acres of land (the Redwood Manors tract) back to residential on two occasions. The dezonings were done without proper notification or due process. The dezonings as well as the litigations of the sewage system were subterfuges to prevent this property from being developed for commercial, multifamily, or single family use. It is an overt racketeering shakedown. Choctaw and its co-conspirator, OSDH, have deliberately kept this property under a no-development moratorium since 1972, in repeated violation of the Rico laws.

In 1978, Petitioner suffered a $250,000 sabotage of earth moving equipment that is connected to the "Choctaw Affair". (The said equipment was not insured.)

June 1980, (OSDH) held extensive hearings pursuant to the Oklahoma Administrative Procedures Act (OAPA), on the Redwood Manors sewer system which evolved into a scheme to ignore a written Agreement between the City, and the OSDH, and Pointon, (please note the fraud; the OSDH was both judge and party in interest) see pages 8 thru 13 in Appendix D, with the intent to stifle development and punitively force Pointon to remodel a good and workable system. Also, as a by-product of the hearings, this inhouse court of the OSDH, canceled the 1962 large sewer lagoon system without a hearing. This large lagoon, also referred to as the west lagoon was fully constructed ready for use. The plan approved by the OSDH and the City of Choctaw as evinced by both entities signing the 1961 Sewer Agreement entitled Permit, was to run a line from the small 40 house lagoon (the source of this subterfuge litigation) to the large west lagoon system. To corroborate this see provision 6 in the "Permit" shown on page 12 of Appendix D herein.

This system was more than adequate to sewer a large number of housing units. These hearings were a subterfuge for a moratorium to stifle development, shake down Pointon, and create a monopoly for the benefit of "Special Interest", the alter ego of

Choctaw and the OSDH.

Choctaw and OSDH conspired and filed a suit for Judicial Review in the County District Court CJ-81-5741, under the unjurisdictional authority of the OAPA, asking the Court to modify the OSDH's Final Order and to mandate that Pointon remodel the system (owned by Choctaw) twenty years later from its properly built 1961 Standards to 1981 Standards. The County District Court without subject matter jurisdiction (under undue influence) granted every request asked by the Respondents against Pointon, except it left operation of the system with Choctaw.

Previous decisions, contrary to a preponderence of the exhibited documentary evidence, shown in the appendix, have favored a false sovereign immunity for these governmental entities, allowing them to run rogue over Petitioner and others in similar situations, which entity heads are appointed and controlled by "Special Interests" who utterly monopolize real estate development in this area.

After fifteen years it is clear that OSDH in its hearings never had jurisdiction of Pointon because he didn't own the sewer works, hence he was not a Real-Party-In-Interest, didn't have jurisdiction of the City because the OAPA specifically states that: "This Act shall not apply to municipalities . . ." 75 O.S. 324; it does not have the jurisdiction to adjudicate property rights and does not have jurisdiction to void Agreements. The sewer Agreement was never voided, just ignored. The County District Court sitting as an appeals court could not have any more jurisdiction or powers than those granted to it in the OAPA which specifically denies its use against or by a city. Therefore, there has never been any proper jurisdiction of Petitioner or the City by this Court. CJ-81-5741 was a fraudulent judgment at its inception.

A pattern emerged which was a design to ruin, bankrupt, shake down, fine, and extort from Pointon and judicially railroad him into a false imprisonment by the fraudulent use of the courts.

Because of the Choctaw Affair's continuous litigations and the moratorium enforced on his development, Petitioner was driven into bankruptcy. The Bankruptcy Court discharged Choctaw's fraudulent judgment.

Attempted Entrapment

Choctaw and OSDH next contrived a nefarious entrapment for Pointon: On or about May 1, 1991, Pointon received an anonymous phone call informing him that Choctaw and OSDH had layed false grounds for a bench warrant for his arrest, fine, and imprisonment concerning the questioned sewage system. Respondents had secretly decided to file an "Application for Citation" in the old dormant false-judgment case, CJ 81-5741 in May of 1991, two years after Petitioner's bankruptcy discharge, then they would not have to notify Pointon with a summons, this was the first entrapment. Choctaw/OSDH in their "Certificate of Mailing" listed five fictitious addresses for Pointon in their "Application". The one correct address listed, they deliberately failed to mail him the "Application for Citation." The second entrapment was failure to inform Pointon of a later trial date. If their well laid entrapments had not been accidently foiled, Pointon would have been cited for contempt in absentia, and the conspirators would have had their fine and incarceration they had so vainly sought. Fantastic? It is a matter of court record.

Since Respondent's "Application" violated the permanent injunction of Pointon's Bankruptcy Discharge, it was necessary to re-open his bankruptcy case.

The Bankruptcy Court ruled in three different Orders that the false judgment, CJ-81-5741 had been discharged.

The District Court sitting as an appeals court to the Bankruptcy Court said the controversy would have to be settled by an adversary suit filed in the Bankruptcy Court which was done. And again, the Court ruled and affirmed the Bankruptcy Discharge.

Then again, the Respondents in their relentless predatory pursuit of Pointon in their zeal to multiply proceedings and their attempt to collect an unlawful debt in violation of Rico, 18 U.S.C. 1964, appealed the above decision to the United States District Court. They again ruled in favor of Pointon.

All of the litigation filed by the Respondents since their "Application for Citation" is in direct violation of the Bankruptcy Discharge Injunction, Sections 106 and 524 of the Code.

Respondents continue their brazen misrepresentation that Pointon is the owner of the sewer system.

There have been seven conveyances of ownership of the sewer system to Choctaw in compliance with the "Sewer Agreement" as clearly shown in an Affidavit pages i thru 34 in Appendix D showing documentary evidence of ownership. Further, any possible residue of ownership, if there was any, was listed in the Bankruptcy Petition and discharged, and further, any and all conditions of Judgment Order CJ-81-5741 had expired under the Oklahoma State Dormant Judgment Statute 12 O.S. Sections 735 and 759 before the date of filing the "Application for Contempt."

Since the filing of Respondents' "Application for Citation for Contempt," Petitioner has incurred in excess of $33,000 in Attorney fees and costs along with a tremendous amount of paralegal time.

Irrefutable Facts

In addition to Petitioner's bankruptcy discharging all conditions of the questioned judgment order, the Respondents had absolutely no grounds for filing their "Application for Citation" because the June 7, 1984 Judgment Order of the Oklahoma County District Court, CJ 81-5741, was a dormant judgment. According to 12 O.S. Sections 735 and 759, it is a nullity. If five years have elapsed (May 28, 1991 date of filing "Application for Citation) and judgment has not been renewed, it is cancelled automatically. Section 735 specifically states:

> "...any judgment now or may be rendered in any court of record in this state, ..."

12 O.S. Chapter 15, page 32, defines "Judgment" and "Final Order" as "synonymous." CJ-81-5741 was a modification of a Final Order. The Respondents failed to comply with the requirement of the statute.

The Respondents insolently committed continuous "Bad Faith" from the inception of all of this intertwined litigation.

This Court has inherent authority to severely sanction the renegade Respondents for "Bad Faith Fraud" perpetrated on the judicial system and Petitioner Pointon.

It is a fact that Petitioner's Affidavit with its documentary exhibits clearly and unequivocally show that Choctaw is the record owner of the sewage system in question; and every time the Respondents disclaim Choctaw's ownership, they are violating "Rule 11 of F.R.C.P" by mendacious fabrications to the court and should be severely sanctioned.

This litigation for fifteen years, spawned by city of Choctaw and its city "Boss", was founded and prosecuted on a fabricated lie in their continuous allegations disclaiming ownership of the sewer system. The opposite to the truth is a lie. Their entire case was built on this fabrication to the courts. Choctaw aided and abetted by OSDH perpetrated a fraud on each court this case has been in and the actors should be severely punished.

On June 13, 1995 Choctaw mailed a "Brief" to be filed in the United States Supreme Court in opposition to Petitioner's improper "Notice of Appeal" to this court.

Counsel for Choctaw in his zeal for attorney's fees could not wait to see if and when Petitioner would file this "Petition For Certiorari". As usual, Respondents are unduly multiplying proceedings.

Also, in Choctaw's Brief they list a gaggle of inappropriate cases as if Choctaw was not the owner of the sewer system. There seems to be no end to Choctaw's pathological mistruths regarding documentary ownership of their sewer system.

REASON FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

The case at bar has many similarities to your recent landmark case: Chambers v. Nasco, Inc., 115 L. Ed 2d 27 (1991): Chambers, the owner of a television station entered contract for the sale of said station to Nasco, Inc. but Chambers later refused to consummate the sale. Subsequently Nasco sued for specific performance of the agreement. Chambers and his attorneys engaged in protracted litigations and the Supreme Court on page 28 held that:

> "...a federal court has inherent power to assess attorneys' fees as a sanction for a party's bad-faith conduct in the course of litigation; ..."

Chambers, his attorneys, and other involved parties were assessed sanctions as follows, on page 31:

> "... (1) much of the party's bad-faith conduct is beyond the reach of the Rules, (2) the party's entire course of conduct throughout the lawsuit evidences bad faith and an attempt to perpetrate a fraud on the court, (3) the conduct sanctionable under the Rules is intertwined within conduct that only the inherent power can address, and (4) in circumstances in which all of a litigant's conduct is deemed sanctionable ..."

So --- in like manner the obstreperous Respondents in the case at bar have continuously lied to the court pertaining to ownership of the sewer system and falsifying their cleanup-theory that the false Judgment Order did not say, which perpetrates a fraud on the court, and continue to violate and desecrate the Bankruptcy Code to this day.

On page 35, the court said:

> "... the assessment of attorneys' fees as a sanction for such misconduct are aimed at punishing not only the harm done to plaintiff, but also the harm done to the court itself."

The fifteen (15) years of litigation spawned and perpetrated by Respondents has been an unnecessary undue burden on the judicial system.

On pages 52 and 53 the court stated:

> "...full attorney's fees were warranted due to the frequency and severity of Chambers' abuses of the judicial system and the resulting need to ensure that such abuses were not repeated. Indeed, the court found Chambers' actions were part of a sordid scheme of deliberate misuse of the judicial process; > designed to defeat Nasco's claim by harassment, repeated and endless delay, mountainous expense and waste of financial resources. It was within the court's discretion to vindicate itself and compensate Nasco by attorney's fees."

The foregoing appropriately describes and parallels the litigation with Respondents and Pointon in this case.

On page 42, Sanctions against Chambers in the form of attorney's fees and expenses totalled --- $996,644.65; attorney Gray was disbarred for three years; attorney Richard A. Curry was suspended from practice for six months; and attorney McCabe was suspended for five years.

The court further said on page 37:

> "Federal courts have the inherent power to manage their own proceedings and to control the conduct to appear before them . . . when the party practices a fraud upon the Court, Universal Oil Products Co. v Root Refining Co., 32 8 US 575, 580, 90 L Ed 1447, 66 S Ct 1176, or delays or disrupts the > litigation or hampers a court's enforcement, Hutto v Fionney, 437 US 678, 689, 57 L Ed 2d 522, 98 S Ct. 2565."

Just as the Respondents' conduct by their three years of continuous attack on Petitioner's Bankruptcy Discharge.

The Court ended its Opinion in the Chambers case by stating on page 53:

> "... the court specifically held that 'the extraordinary amount of costs and expenses expended in this proceeding were caused not by lack of diligence or any delays in the trial of this matter by NASCO's counsel or the Court, but solely by the relentless, repeated fraudulent and brazenly unethical efforts of Chambers' and the others..."

The above quoted paragraph adequately describes the Respondents actions against Petitioner Pointon.

In Re Kiker, 98 B.R. 103 (ND of Ga. 1988) the court held:

> "... that repeated attempts by IRS to assess and collect discharged tax claims from debtors, in violation of permanent > injunction, warranted finding civil contempt and award to debtors of their attorney fees and related costs."

Another action with similarities to the case at bar was, In Re Myers, 18 B.R. 362 (1962). The creditor Beneficial Finance Co. filed a warrant in detinue against debtor in state court. The court ruled:

> "...that creditor wilfully violated discharge injunction and would be fined $10,000, for contempt."

This was 33 years ago, a comparable fine today would be several times more than this amount.

Sanctions

This Court should invoke severe sanctions against the perpetrators of this dubious affair, City Attorney Ted N. Pool, his law partner, Robert Thompson, and City of Choctaw, and OSDH, and the Oklahoma County District Attorney, Bob Macey, representing OSDH.

The amount of legal fees and costs expended by Petitioner since Respondents filed their "Application for Citation," greatly exceed $33,000. Petitioner requests that this Court award his legal fees and in addition award multiple compensatory damages based on Petitioner's spent legal fees.

Respondents at all times since the filing of their "Application for Citation" have been in perpetual violation of the Bankruptcy Discharge Injunction of Petitioner Pointon.

Congress did not pass the Bankruptcy laws with its permanent Injunction only to have them blatantly violated and desecrated by a three year assault by Respondents.

Petitioner requests that this Court cite the above actors sua sponte.

EXTORTIONIST SHAKEDOWN

On April 6, 1993 Petitioner's attorney received a phone call from attorney Bob Thompson, law partner to Ted Pool, Choctaw City Attorney, offering to settle this endless litigation if Petitioner would give -- free gratis -- a water works to Choctaw; then the City would quit disclaiming ownership of their sewer system. See copy of letter from Petitioner's attorney in Appendix E.

Next, on January 10, 1994 the City Manager of Choctaw sent a letter to Petitioner's attorney offering to settle: he insinuates that if Petitioner would give the water works to the City that maybe -- it is unclear -- that Choctaw would quit disclaiming ownership of their sewer system. Then as a sop, the City offered to return (10) acres of commercial zoning of the 150 acres commercial zoning that Choctaw clandestinely and fraudulently had dezoned on two previous occasions. See copy of letter in Appendix F.

Unanswered questions: Would Choctaw again dezone this (10) acres and would there still remain a building moratorium? There is no sewer capacity since Choctaw and OSDH in their "surprise" in this litigation, had the court cancel the 200 house capacity large unused sewer system without a reason, except to stifle and shake down Petitioner. This offer promises more shakedown by Choctaw. Petitioner no longer owns the development property.

Petitioner urges this Supreme Court to invoke its inherent powers on its own initiative and sanction Choctaw, its attorneys, the OSDH and its attorneys; to remand this case to the trial court would only play into the hands of Choctaw's attorneys and would add to the fifteen (15) years of endless litigation. It is within this court's power to grant justice right here and now.

CONCLUSION

City of Choctaw and its officials, and OSDH and its officials, were participants to the sewer Agreement; they knew of the Bond Prospectus naming Choctaw as owner of the sewer system which was collateral for the bonds, see page 14 of Appendix D; they knew of the conveyances of the sewer system to Choctaw; they knew that they did not have valid jurisdiction of Pointon; they knew that Pointon's Bankruptcy Discharge discharged their false judgment; they knew that their witchburning "Application for Citation" of fine and imprisonment for Pointon was a railroad action; they knew that they were using the courts for extortion to collect an unlawful debt. In all of the foregoing, the Respondents committed fraud with intentional malice to the detriment of Pointon and the courts.

This litigation spawned by City of Choctaw and its officials and City Attorney contains several prongs: 1. It is an extortionist shakedown; 2. To prevent the development of the Redwood Manors tract which petitioner no longer owns; 3. To run Pointon into bankruptcy and out of business, which they did; 4. So that "Special Interest" can monopolize real estate development in the area; 5. So City attorney Pool and Thompson can bleed Choctaw for attorney fees by churning this litigation indefinitely. Attorney Pool is the "Boss" of the City of Choctaw. Since he has been City Attorney (some 22 years) councilmen come and go, but he stays forever running the city.

This is not a fine-line case. The preponderance of the documentary evidence proves beyond a shadow of doubt that Choctaw is the undisputed owner of the sewer system, that Choctaw's 1984 judgment was fraudulent from its inception, then after driving Petitioner into the bankruptcy court, their fraudulent judgment was again discharged by the Bankruptcy Court as well as the Oklahoma State Dormant Judgment Statute, that the three years of persistent predatory litigations beginning with Respondents filing of their "Application for Citation" was a concerted attempt to use the courts to railroad Pointon into prison which constituted a malicious violation of the "Bad-Faith Doctrine" and a direct violation of the permanent injunction of the Bankruptcy Code.

These covert acts were designed to use governmental treasuries, city and state, for payment of attorneys' fees to institute endless litigations since 1980 to ruin, bankrupt, and shake down, fine and incarcerate Petitioner, such as their recent Brief to this Court.

For fifteen (15) years, the unssavory Respondents have reaped unjust enrichments by the use of unlimited funds to apply a throttle-hold on Petitioner to his business and to his person, rendering him helpless.

If not the helpless, who should the law protect?

The bombing of April 19th proves that corruption is rife in the Oklahoma City Area. City of Choctaw is a suburb of Oklahoma City.

For the reasons set forth above, a Writ of Certiorari should issue to review the Judgment and Opinion of the Court of Appeals in this matter.[1]

Petitioner prays for relief according to the foregoing.

CITY OF CHOCTAW, OKLAHOMA; STATE OF OKLAHOMA, ex rel. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Defendants-Appellees.

No. 94-7053
(Filed U.S. Ct. of App. 10th Cir. May 2, 1995)

ORDER AND JUDGMENT[2]

Before ANDERSON, BALDOCK, and BRORBY, Circuit Judges.

After examining the briefs and appellate record, this panel has determined unanimously that oral argument would not materially assist the determination of this appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 34 (a); 10th

[2] This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. The Court generally disfavors the citation of orders and judgments; nevertheless, an order and judgment may be cited under the terms and conditions of the court's General Order filed November 29, 1993. 151 F.R.D. 470.

Cir R. 34.1.9. The case is therefore ordered submitted without oral argument.

This dispute revolves around a sewer lagoon that appellant William Patrick Pointon, Jr. built for a subdivision in Choctaw, Oklahoma, in 1961. In 1984, appellees City of Choctaw (City) and Oklahoma State Department of Health (OSDH) obtained a state court judgment against Pointon (the 1984 order). This judgment required Pointon to undertake certain work on the lagoon and, thus, was in the nature of injunctive relief, not damages. Pointon took no steps to comply wilth the 1984 order. Pointon filed bankruptcy in 1989 and was granted a general discharge under Chapter 7. Although both the City and OSDH were listed as judgment creditors on Pointon's bankruptcy schedules and received proper notice of the proceeding, neither objected to the discharge of the 1984 order in Pointon's bankruptcy. In 1991, they attempted to enforce the 1984 order through a state court contempt proceeding. Pointon obtained a stay in the state court and, after some proceedings in the bankruptcy court not relevant to this appeal, he filed an adversary proceeding, seeking a declaratory judgment that the 1984 order represented a dischargeable and discharged debt. Pointon moved for summary judgment and appellees responded. The bankruptcy court granted summary judgment to Pointon, holding that the 1984 order was a dischargeable debt that was, in fact, discharged. The City and OSDH appealed from the grant of summary judgment to the district court, which ruled in favor of Pointon.

Pointon then filed in the district court a motion for attorney's fees, sanctions, and a contempt citation under 28

U.S.C. sec. 1927, Fed R. Civ. P. 11, and E.D. Okla. R. 6, arguing that appellees should not have pursued enforcement of the 1984 order in the face of his discharge in bankruptcy. The district court denied relief in a minute order, stating that it could not find that their appeal was "frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith." R. doc. 10. Pointon appeals from the denial of attorney's fees.[1] We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. sections 158 (d) and 1291.[2] We review the district court's denial of attorney's fees for abuse of discretion.

[1] Pointon also seeks sanctions against his former attorney for "improperly" filing the motion for fees in the district court rather than the bankruptcy court. A motion for attorney's fees on appeal is properly filed in a district court sitting as an appellate court. See Morris ex rel Rector v. Peterson, 871 F.2d 948, 951 (10th Cir. 1989). Therefore, the request for sanctions is denied without further discussion.

[2] The City and OSDH argue that Pointon's notice of appeal was untimely. Pointon demonstrated with a postal receipt, however, that the court timely received the notice of appeal several days before it was stamped "filed". We conclude that Pointon timely filed the notice of appeal.

See Continental Trend Resources, Inc. v. OXY USA Inc., 44 F. 3d 1465, 1483 (10th Cir. 1995).

Appellees argued on appeal to the district court that the 1984 order could not properly have been discharged because it was not a "claim" within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. sec. 101(5) (B). Whether an order for injunctive relief is a claim within the meaning of the Bankrukptcy Code is a debatable question. See United States v. The LTV Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 944 F.2d 997, 1008 (2d Cir. 1991) discussing types of injunctions that do or do not constitute a "claim" under 11 U.S.C. sec. 101(4)(B) now Sec. 101(5) (B). In addition, appellees' argument was invited by Pointon, who raised the issue of dischargeability in his declaratory judgment action. Cf. United States v.

Burson, 952 F.2d 1196, 1203 (10th Cir. 1991) holding that invited error doctrine "prevents a party who induces an erroneous ruling from being able to have it set aside on appeal"), cert. denied, 112 S. Ct 1702 (1992). Therefore, we cannot find that the district court abused its discretion in holding that the appeal to that court was not frivolous, vexatious, or in bad faith.

The judgment of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma is affirmed. The mandate shall issue forthwith.

Case No. CIV-93-545-S

On appeal from the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma Case No. 92-70729, Chapter 7 Adversary 93-7008

FILED Sep. 20 1993

AFFIDAVIT OF WILLIAM PATRICK POINTON, JR.

STATE OF OKLAHOMA]
] SS:
COUNTY OF SEMINOLE]

I, William Patrick Pointon, Jr., of lawful age, and being duly sworn upon oath, do hereby aver as follows:

I, William Patrick Pointon, Jr., am the Debtor/Appellee in case on appeal from the United States Bankrukptcy Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma Case No. 92-70729, Chapter 7 Adversary 93-7008. I am 69 years of age and I am a semi-retired small-businessman. I live at 220 East Oak, apartment 224, Seminole, Oklahoma. In support of my position, I hereby summarize the facts of the case.

BACKGROUND OF THE CASE

In 1980, the Oklahoma State Department of Health ("OSDH") filed an administrative action against the City of Choctaw ("Choctaw") and affiant (as developer of the subject housing addition) because Choctaw would not operate its sewer system. Choctaw's refusal to operate the sewer system resulted in a moratorium on the development of affiant's addition. Since affiant no longer owned the sewer system, having conveyed it after construction to Choctaw, he was not a real party-in-interest. The Final Order of the OSDH ordered Choctaw to operate and maintain its sewer system, which Order is still in effect. But Choctaw has steadfastly refused to do so up to this date.

Choctaw appealed the OSDH's Final Order to the County District Court. At this juncture, the OSDH changed its position and joined Choctaw against affiant. This thirteen (13) years of groundless litigation has been an undue burden on the courts and is a textbook case of abusing the legal system. Even after forcing affiant into bankruptcy, Appellants filed an "Application for Citation for Contempt" seeking "fines and imprisonment" for a judgment discharged in the Bankruptcy Court.

Appellants enjoy claiming that Appellee is the owner of the sewer system lagoon. They base this "conclusion" on the single line from the State District Court Order that refers to Appellee as the owner of the system. It is clear, however, that the Court made no finding and entered no Order establishing title to property. The Court made no inquiry into ownership of the system. There have been several conveyances of ownership of the sewer system to Choctaw, a published approval and acceptance, and a Final Disclaimer, as demonstrated by the evidence entered in this case, to-wit:

No. 1. Dedication and acceptance in the Plat recorded in the County Clerk's office.

No. 2. Sewer Application and Permit, a binding agreement, see pages 8 thru 13 of Appendix D.

No. 3. Prospectus, reference of Approval and Acceptance, see pages 14 thru 16 of Appendix D.

No. 4. 1979 Easement re-conveyance, see pages 17 thru 19 of Appendix D.

No. 5. 1980 Easement re-conveyance, see pages 20 thru 28 of Appendix D.

No. 6. Affidavit of Choctaw councilman, see pages 29 and 30 of Appendix D.

No. 7. Final Disclaimer in the Bankruptcy schedules, see pages 31 thru 34 of Appendix D.

The above instruments are all public documents and show that ownership of the sewer system clearly and indisputably vests in Choctaw, as required by the OSDH as stated in the sewer permit application, and has for the past thirty-three (33) years. Choctaw cannot explain away these documents, they are replete. Choctaw has no evidence. Choctaw has never presented one shred of evidence showilng that they did not own the sewer system, or that they were not ordered to operate the system, not one.

The Appellants' allegations do not constitute evidence. This thirteen (13) years of protracted litigation has been an exercise of malicious prosecution, and abuse of the legal process.

The preponderance of the evidence points one way and one way only. Appellee therefore requests an Order instructing the Bankruptcy Court to:

1. Award attorney fees and costs for violation of Appellee's Bankrukptcy Discharge Order, as Appellee has been relentlessly prosecuted by Appellants with virtually unlimited resources;

2. Find Appellants in contempt for willfully and wantonly, with malice, violating Appellee's Bankruptcy Discharge Order by seeking contempt charges for "fine and imprisonment" in the State Court;

3. Find Appellant's continuous litigation to be frivolous and that Appellants be permanently enjoined from further litigation with affiant in connection with the sewer system since Appellee no longer owns the system and has no responsibility for its operation and maintenance;

4. Find that the preponderance of the documentary evidence shows ownership of the sewer system clearly is vested in Choctaw;

5. Find that the preponderance of the documentary evidence clearly reveals that Appellee is not the owner of the sewer system;

6. Assess sanctions against Appellants for prosecuting and continuing this litigation in violation of the Bankruptcy Discharge.

Accordingly, Affiant prays for justice and sanctions against Appellants after thirteen (13) years of malicious prosecution.

Further affiant sayeth not.

Judgment, Oklahoma County District Court, Case No. CJ 81-5741, June 8, 1984. Appealed to the Court of Appeals of the State of Oklahoma, Case No. 61,918.

The judgments concern a sewage system built in 1961, by debtor on city easements. The Oklahoma State Department of Health had a standard requirement that such a sewage system be given to the city which documentary evidence showed it was done.

In 1981, the Health Department passed New Standards for sewage systems. An illegal act began: To litigate with debtor which began in 1981, to force him to re-build this system 20 years later to the new standards. The two Oklahoma Courts ruled that debtor must submit new plans and re-build the sewage system to the Oklahoma State Department of Health's arbitrary adopted 1981, standards, in short, spend an undetermined amount of funds at the Health Department's and City's every whim. This is repugnant to the United States Constitution's ex post facto doctrine. It is a judgment of extortion. It is the debtors intention that these two above numbered judgments be extinguished by this bankruptcy in every demand and it is further debtors intention that any ownership that debtor might have had (if he has any) of the easements and any and all facilities of the said sewage system be forfeited and disclaimed to the public interest in this bankruptcy proceeding. And that this court release and discharge in this bankruptcy proceedings, all debts by debtor from any interest debtor had or was construed to have by judgment or otherwise to the sewage system or alleged to have had by these two aforementioned judgments.

Dear Mr. Pointon:

We are presently in the process of preparing a Motion for Summary Judgment and Brief in Support Thereof for the bankruptcy proceeding in your case. In the meantime, we have received a call from Bob Thompson, who I'm sure you will know as Ted Pool's law partner. We had suggested to him that his clients may want to agree to an Order in your case, because the law is clear. We did not actually expect them to take us up on the offer, but thought it was worth an attempt.

Mr. Thompson's position is that you continue to own and benefit from the subject property. The solution that he has suggested is that you convey to the City the water system, and the City will agree to accept the sewer system. I know you and I have talked somewhat about this concept, but I am not quite sure we have reached an adequate conclusion. We are assuming that you do still claim the water system about which Mr. Thnompson is talking. We also assume that you are not willing to convey that to the City. We know and understand your position with regard to the sewer system, we only wish that the District Court had agreed with you. Without reviewing all of the file and all of my notes I, frankly, cannot remember what you have told me about the water system and why it was not handled in your bankruptcy proceding.

In any case, we did want you to be aware of the "offer" of Mr. Thompson. If it has any appeal to you, please let me know and we will see what can be worked out.

Sincerely yours,

Re: William Pointon
Redwood Manor Addition (Water/Sewer System)

Dear Mr. Cadenhead:

The City is still interested in negotiating a settlement with Mr. Pointon to bring to an end this long standing legal battle regarding the sewer system in Redwood Manor. However, any settlement, mutually agreed upon by both parties, will be subject to Court approval. I feel this will be necessary to protect all parties' interests and to eliminate any misunderstanding that might arise in the future. The City is interested in providing a public water system, as well as a sewer system, to serve the 40 plus residents in the Addition. We feel these residents deserves a reliable public system since they have purchased homes in good faith. Therefore, the City would consider an application for commercial zoning of a maximum of ten (10) acres located in the southeast quarter of Section 5. A larger tract of land would necessitate a Planned Unit Development (PUD) which would be more involved and detailed.

We look forward in hearing from you as soon as possible to formulate such a settlement. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert L. Floyd, City Manager
